BA in Social Science, UNIN; Programme in Strategic Transformation, Graduate School of Business, University of Stellenbosch

Dawn is one of South Africa's leading managers and businesswomen, with a highly successful and pioneering career spanning the public, private and parastatal sectors. Her talents and accomplishments were recognised in particular by her appointment as the first Black woman to the Management Board of Eskom, as Executive Director in charge of Growth and Development. In this position Dawn played a pivotal role in aligning the organisation with the demands of the changing national and international environments and positioning Eskom to be one of the role models amongst South African organisations.

Prior to this Dawn worked as Senior Manager and Senior General Manager (Human Resources) for Eskom and as Senior Divisional Health Education Manager for the Anglo-American Corporation. She has also served as Group Manager in charge of Community Development for the then Bophuthatswana Agricultural Development corporation, as a Medical Social Work Manager in Bophuthatswana, and as a Social Worker in the Orange Free State. For two years she also successfully ran her own Public Relations and Development Consultancy. In all these positions, Dawn earned a reputation for strategic thinking and vision, and for committed and innovative leadership, particularly in the areas of human resources development, equal opportunities, and organisational change and development.

Dawn's talents and achievements have been widely recognised and acclaimed both at home and abroad.
